Fu Jen Catholic University Love for Ukraine Scholarship Program Regulations

Passed at the First Meeting of the Executive Council for the 2022-2023 Academic Year on September 8, 2022

Article 1: Objectives

The main purpose of this scholarship is to provide Ukrainian students affected by the war financial support to study in Fu Jen Catholic University and enhance their employability and international competitiveness.

Article 2: Eligibility

Ukrainian students may apply for the scholarship if they are admitted by programs listed in the admission brochure for degree-seeking international students. Furthermore, they may not receive another form of scholarship or financial assistance from the R.O.C. government to pursue a degree in Taiwan.

Article 3: Source of Funding

Fu Jen Catholic University's development endowment fund.

Article 4: Number of Recipients

The number of recipients will be determined based on the available funding each academic year.

Article 5: When to Apply

Applications are made in accordance with the online application dates specified in the admission brochure for international students.

Article 6: How to Apply

Applications are made through the online application system.

Article 7: Term

After enrollment in the first semester following admission, the duration is limited to 8 semesters for the undergraduate program, 4 semesters for the master's program, and 6 semesters for the doctoral program.

Article 8: Amount and Disbursement

Students will be awarded NT$150,000 per semester, which will be awarded in monthly payments over the five months after registration.

Article 9

The scholarship will be forfeited under the following circumstances:

1. Undergraduate and master's programs:
 - A. The recipient does not complete registration; takes a voluntary leave of absence; discontinues studies; or receives a demerit for gross misconduct.
 - B. The recipient fails to complete sufficient credits: Undergraduates must fulfill the credit requirements specified in Fu Jen Catholic University Regulations Governing Course Registration. Master's students in first year must complete a minimum of six credits per semester; master's students in second year must complete a minimum of three credits per semester;
 - C. The recipient fails to earn the required average grade in any two semesters: an undergraduate must earn an average grade of at least seventy percent; a master's student must earn an average grade of at least eighty percent.
 - D. The recipient is absent for more than one-fifth of the combined total of class hours between all courses in which they are registered.
2. Doctoral programs:
 - A. The recipient does not complete registration; takes a voluntary leave of absence; discontinues studies; or receives a demerit for gross misconduct.
 - B. The recipient completes fewer than two credits in a semester.
 - C. The recipient earns an average grade of less than eighty percent in any two semesters.
 - D. The recipient is unable to secure an academic advisor for more than three months.
 - E. The recipient is discovered to be concurrently studying at another academic institution in Taiwan while receiving the scholarship.
 - F. The recipient travels outside of Taiwan for more than one month without first obtaining permission.

Article 10: Review and Announcement

Scholarship applicants are first reviewed by the International Student Center of the Office of International Education, and then by the Fu Jen Catholic University International Academic Exchange Review Committee. After review, the results will be announced on the Fu Jen Catholic University Admission for International Students website and approved by the University Management Committee for Development Funds.

Article 11

Any matters not covered by these regulations shall be resolved by the Fu Jen Catholic University International Academic Exchange Review Committee.

Article 12

These Regulations were passed by the Executive Council, and will be promulgated and implemented after the approval of the President. The same procedure will be followed for each amendment.
